International Engagement and Research Cooperation Webinar

The USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service (FAS) and NIFA invite you to a webinar on "Opportunities for international engagement and research cooperation." April 13, 9pm (ET). Learn about FAS fellowship and exchange programs, and opportunities for including international activities in your NIFA-funded research. And other NIFA programs such as:

- Postdoc Fellowship Program
- Short-term Fellowship Program
- Faculty Exchange Program
- US-China Scientific Cooperation Exchange Program
- Research Cooperation Program

Please register for the webinar.

Funding Opportunities for International Projects

OIRC curates external funding opportunities for international research from a comprehensive suite of sources, along with our knowledge of the donor landscape. While we organize these opportunities around MSU's four global research priorities (Agriculture & Food; Environment, Energy, & Water; Health & Nutrition; and Education & Engagement), we also include opportunities from other fields, along with scholarships and fellowships. We send these out in our weekly email funding update along with any interesting news items or relevant events.
