

Envisioning Retirement Pathways
Taking the “Taboo” Out of Retirement Series
February 2, 2018 8:30 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.
MSU Main Library, Green Room

This program is designed for all MSU faculty and academic staff to start envisioning the pathway to retirement that best fits them. This program will include examples of several different avenues taken to retirement by MSU academics. Information about MSU’s policies will also be provided as a framework for constructing possible pathways.

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| 8:15 a.m. | Registration |
| 8:30 a.m. – 8:40 a.m. | Welcome
Roger Baldwin, Professor Emeritus, College of Education |
| 8:40 a.m. – 8:50 a.m. | Michigan State University Policies, Parameters, and Possibilities
Terry Curry, Associate Provost and Vice President, Academic Human Resources |
| 8:50 a.m. – 9:55 a.m. | Panel Discussion
Alison Barber, Secretary of the Board of Trustees and Executive Assistant to the President Emeritus and Associate Professor Emeritus, Management
Walter Benenson, University Distinguished Professor Emeritus, Lyman Briggs College and Physics and Astronomy
Deborah L. Feltz, University Distinguished Professor and Chairperson Emeritus, Kinesiology
Cynthia Taggart, Professor, Music
Ed Welch, Professor Emeritus, School of Human Resources and Labor Relations |
| 9:55 a.m. - 10:00 a.m. | Conclusion & Last Comments
Roger Baldwin, Professor Emeritus, College of Education |

Retirement resource webpage can be located at: <http://bit.ly/retirement-resources-faculty>.

